

Enters Into Agreement With Windward Communications & Consulting

Vancouver, BC – April 24, 2001 - Andean American Mining Corp. is pleased to announce that it has entered into an agreement, subject to regulatory approval with Windward Communications and Consulting of Charlotte, North Carolina. This contract is for the provision of shareholders communications services through conferences, presentations and publications.

Windward Communications' principle publication is the Resource Stock Watch. This publication focuses on mining and energy sectors only and has been published monthly for the past two decades. The circulation for the publication now stands at 485,000. The principal of the company is Mr. Kelly Boatright.

Mr. Boatright has been providing shareholder communications services for the past twenty years. The services to be provided by Windward Communications include, but are not limited to, the arranging of broker, analyst, institutional and individual investor meetings, the attendance or representation for the company at mining conferences as well as assistance in the preparation of various corporate and investor related materials.

Windward will help increase public exposure to the Company's recent and ongoing achievements while continuing to respond to market needs and client interests in the coming months. Following startup, Windward will be paid a fee of US$3,500 per month. The term of the agreement is for 12 months but may be terminated upon 14 days written notice, or could also be renewed by mutual agreement.

The Company will pay consulting fees only for the services provided but may reimburse for any authorized expenses which may arise. Once the trial period has been passed, stock options may be granted by Andean American.

Windward Communications is a team of professionals with offices in North Carolina, Toronto and soon in Vancouver. They will represent the company in scheduled conferences and receptions across the U.S., Canada and Europe. Windward specifically agrees to follow all U.S. Securities laws when representing Andean in the United States.
